STEPPING STONES

NEWSLETTER – AUGUST/SEPTEMBER 2014

The Resource Center out in the community

Thanks for visiting us at Civic Plaza during Victims Rights week, at South Valley Pride Day, and at the park event in Rio Rancho. We hope you got helpful information.

WE ARE HAVING A BREAKFAST & BALLOONS FUNDRAISER and MEET & GREET ON SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 13TH from 8 AM to 10 AM ... SEE PAGE 3 FOR MORE INFORMATION.

INFORMATION and PROGRAMS that may help as you take further steps in managing the aftermath of violent death:

- ✓ VINE – Victim Information Notification Everyday - You can register to receive notification of the jail release status of the offender in your case

<http://www.vinelink.com>

- ✓ NMSAVIN – State Automated Victims Information Notification system. Provides court event information to crime victims, families, and witnesses, with upcoming court proceedings in Metro Court, Magistrate Court and District Courts in NM.

<http://nmsavin.com>

BOTH ARE FREE SERVICES

WOULD YOU BE INTERESTED IN ATTENDING A SPANISH-SPEAKING GRIEF GROUP?

The group would be facilitated by Mr. and Mrs. Gabino Venegas, parents of a son lost to violent death and would use a support video called -

“Viviendo con Dolor Despues de la Perdida Repentina de un Ser Querido”

Tell us of your interest in such a group – 505-243-2222

UNITED WAY DONATIONS

If your work participates in the United Way of Central New Mexico, you can name the NIA/NM Resource Center for Victims of Violent Death as an agency to receive your donations. Your donations will help us provide more services to families like yours.
