

We serve those left behind after a violent death: the families, loved ones, friends, neighbors, coworkers, schoolmates, and those in the larger community, the city, and the state. We offer a “bridge” across the gaps in victim services with support, information, advocacy, referrals and grief support groups. There is no charge for our services.

WHAT'S UP !

LUNCH AND LEARNING
Friday Nov. 17
Noon – 1:30pm
Topic:
A Time of Thanks.
 Join us for food, info about “The Warm Line” and to meet & thank some of those who have helped you and us.

Our 6th Annual  Snowflake Memorial will be on Wednesday 12/13/17 6:00 pm. We will send you an invitation soon.

First Wednesday Group – for info, sharing, support and special activities to begin in January. Join us.

November 2017 – A Time of Thanks

| Sun | Mon | Tue | Wed | Thu | Fri | Sat |
|-----|-----|-----|-----------------------|----------------|--|-----|
| | | | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 |
| 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 |
| 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 Lunch & Learning | 18 |
| 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | WE GIVE THANKS | 24 | 25 |
| 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 Los Lunas Group | 30 | French's Grief Resource Center offers workshops to help cope during the holidays. Call: 505-842-7166 | |

This month we remember: Nicole Adams, Angel “Santana” Martinez, Nicole Leon-Ortiz Carey Cudlip, Aaron Roybal, and Jerry “JJ” Trejo. Please let us know if we overlooked a loved one.

Our agency provides a link to the New Mexico Crisis and Access Line \(1-855-466-7100\). Come to Lunch and Learning to meet the director, Wendy Linebrink-Allison, to learn about how they help and about their “WarmLine”. Also come meet members of our Board of Directors.

We are here for you... Pat, Joan, & Aussy